A TRIBUTE TO SCHLEY

Captain Cook Regards Him as an Enthusiastically Brave Officer.

SCHLEY'S CASE CONCLUDED

Judge Advocate Has Finished Presentation of Testimony --First Witness for Schley.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Today in the Schley court of inquiry Judge Advocate Lemly concluded presentation of testimony for the government and the first witness for Admiral Schley's witnesses was introduced. Captain Francis A. Cook, commanded Admiral (then commodore) Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, during the Santiago campaign, and who, it is said, though unofficially, in the capacity of chief of staff for the commodore, is on the witness stand the greater part of the day. He was followed by Lieutenant Commander William F. Clapp, who was senior watch officer on the New Orleans during the Spanish war and Former Lieutenant Joseph C. Wilson, who, as an officer of the Harvard, received the cipher dispatches from Commodore Schley, and; the navy department carried by that vessel. Some of these dispatches was that sent Commodore Schley, May 28, expressing regret at not having been able to carry the orders of the department and asking the reason why he could not do so. There are some verbal discrepancies between the original draft of this dispatch and the official print of it and Mr. Wilson explained.

Lieutenant Beal was the last of the government witnesses, although Captain Lemly explained that he would reserve the right to call on others if occasion should demand that he do so.

He had no sooner retired than the first witness for Admiral Schley was called. This proved to be the Cuban patriot, Eduardo Nunez, who told Schley on May 28, 1898, that he did not believe the Spanish fleet under Cervera was in the harbor of Santiago.

Captain Cook's testimony was a review of the entire campaign after Cervera's fleet, beginning with the departure of the flying squadron from Key West on May 19, and concluding with the battle of Santiago, July 3. He said that at first it had been believed by Admiral Sampson and Schley that the Spanish fleet was in the harbor of Cienfuegos and that no information to the contrary had been conveyed to Commodore Schley until the arrival of Captain McCalla on May 24; that it was Commodore Schley's expectation to remain there for the Spaniards in the open sea and a constant care was to have coal enough for such emergency. He gave particulars concerning the retrograde movement and explained the Brooklyn's part in connection with a graphic account of the engagement of July 3. Asked for an opinion as to Admiral Schley's bearing as a commanding officer, he said:

"I always regarded him as an enthusiastically brave and patriotic officer."

When Edwardo Nunez, the Cuban pilot, was called an interpreter was introduced, as Nunez cannot speak English. He said he had been a pilot for 21 years in all the southern Cuban ports. The interpreter used the word "guide" in interpreting his statement as above, and Admiral Dewey corrected him, saying the word should be "pilot."

Nunez said he first met Commodore Schley on May 26, having been taken to him by the St. Paul. The commodore, he said, asked him if he knew of the presence of the Spanish fleet at Santiago. He replied that he doubted it, as he did not think the water was deep enough for vessels of such size.

On June 1 he had gone on the Vixon to the Cuban coast with a message for General Callixto Garcia, which he had delivered to Colonel Cebereco. Commodore Schley had sent him on this mission and he had been told, then by Cebereco that the Spanish fleet was in the harbor. This information Nunez said he had carried to Admiral Sampson, under the direction of Commodore Schley.

Captain Parker then read a copy of the letter which the pilot said he had carried from Commodore Schley to the Cubans, in which he suggested a code of signals similar to the code arranged by Captain McCalla at Cienfuegos.

On cross examination the witness said, that Cebereco had given him the names of the Spanish vessels inside the harbor. He gave the names of those vessels, saying that they were given to him at that time by Cebereco.

The witness also said that prior to going ashore June 1, he had not seen the Colonel. He said that his reason for thinking the vessels could not get into the harbor of Santiago was that such large vessels as those of the Spanish fleet had never before been seen there, he thought the harbor both too narrow and too shallow. He had expressed the opinion that unless they had "double machinery" (twin screws) they could not get in without the assistance of tugs. Nunez was then excused and the judge advocate was about to call Commander Mason when Admiral Dewey suggested that as it was then ten minutes of four the court should adjourn. Accordingly the court adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow.

EPISCOPALIANS DISCUSSED CANONICAL QUESTIONS

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Oct. 14.—The house of deputies of the Episcopal church of America sitting as a committee of the whole today adopted the proposed canon prohibiting the re-marriage of divorced persons for causes not arising previous their former marriage. The canon was adopted just as it came from the house of bishops. The vote stood 182 to 138 against.

The amendment of Dr. Huntington of New York making exception in the case of the innocent party to an divorce granted on the ground of adultery, was rejected by a vote of 158 to 153.

The result of the vote in the committee of the whole was reported to the house of deputies who will vote on the matter. The result, however, may be the same, for in the house the vote of 3/4 delegations is required to carry a measure, the divided delegations usually counting among the nays. No vote was set for a final vote, by the house but it will presumably be taken tomorrow.

Previous to this action in committee of the whole the house of deputies adopted the resolutions presented by Dr. McKim of Washington, providing for a standing joint commission of both houses to consider the relations of labor and capital. It is to consist of three bishops, three presbyters and three laymen and shall report its proceedings to each general convention.

The afternoon session of the house of deputies was held behind closed doors and was devoted entirely to consideration and voting on the five nominations for missionary bishops handed down from the house of bishops. The election resulted in the choice of the following:

Rev. James Addison Ingle, district of Han-kow; Rev. Charles H. Brent, district of the Philippines; Rev. Frederick William Kastor, district of Olympia; Rev. Charles Cabell Brown, district of Puerto Rico.

The only nomination rejected was that of Rev. Charles Campbell Pierce to be missionary bishop of North Dakota.

The house of bishops today created the missionary district of Honolulu to take effect April 1, 1902.

Consent was given, the house of deputies concurring, for the election of a missionary bishop for this district during the interval between this session and the next general convention. A letter was sent to the synod of Mexico stating the terms which must be complied with before the bishops for that country can be appointed.

Several canonical questions were discussed and settled by the bishops during the day, the further revision of the canons being then referred to the next general convention.

HEARTY OVATIONS TO THE DUKE AND DUCHESS

By Associated Press.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—The Duke and Duchess of York today covered a considerable distance of their eastward journey, after Niagara-on-the-Lake this morning the royal train went westward as far as Hamilton, where several hours were spent. The train then rounded the westend of Lake Ontario and started on the home journey to the Atlantic coast. The royal party received a series of ovations. At St. Catherines the school children sang patriotic songs as the train rolled into the station, Lady Minto, wife of the governor general of Canada, was one of the first to greet the royal party when the train stopped at Hamilton.

The duke, as on many similar occasions before, wore the uniform of the Royal Irish Fusiliers. He and the duchess were met by Mayor Hendrie and escorted to carriages, amid the cheers of the crowds, and driven to the city hall, where loyal addresses were presented. In the afternoon the Thirteenth battalion received a new set of colors from the duke. The royal party left for Brantford, Stratford and Woodstock at 6 o'clock, the governor general's section of the train leaving shortly afterward for Toronto. A short stop was made at this point and afterward the train left for Belleville, where both sections remained for the night.

MISSIONARY DENOUNCED BELGIUM GOVERNMENT

By Associated Press.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—The annual convention of the Christian Foreign Missionary society opened today in the Seventh Avenue auditorium with President Nelson in the chair. The attendance was unusually large.

The principal address of the morning session was delivered by M. E. Farris, a young man who spent the last few years in missionary work in the Congo Free State.

Mr. Farris was very severe in his denunciation of the Belgium government which administers affairs in the Congo, stating that the government was corrupt from top to bottom. He had seen natives that for failing to turn in their per capita tax of rubber, even when they lived in districts which produced none of that commodity. Furthermore, government officials did everything in their power, unofficially, to hinder the missionaries in ethic work.

The treasurer's report showed receipts during the year amounting to $171,888, a decrease when compared with the collections of a year ago.

President McLean said that Mark Twain was directly responsible for the falling off.

The afternoon was devoted to the reports of various committees, addresses and the election of officers for the ensuing year.

DENVER POLICE BOARD STOPS PRIZE FIGHT

By Associated Press.

Denver, Oct. 14.—The 10-round go scheduled to occur tonight under the auspices of the Rocky Mountain Athletic club, between Eddie Toy of San Francisco, and "Spike" Wallace was interferred with by the police at the last moment. A large crowd, including the principals had gathered at the club house when word came from President Adams of the fire and police board, that the fight could not be held. The promoters claim that they had received assurance from Chief Armstrong that he would not interfere and for a time it looked as though prize fighting would again be sanctioned in Denver. It is thought the action of President Adams tonight practically kills pugilism here for all time.

There are still in Colorado Springs precincts of El Paso county three thousand voters whose names are not on the registration books at the county clerk's office. If these names are not put on the books during the present week it will mean that three thousand citizens in Colorado Springs are failing to do their part in the governing of El Paso county.

The registration last week was heavy, more than two thousand voters having their names entered on the books, the exact number being 2,075. Yesterday however, the registration was light, there being but 200 or a little more than that, which means that if the registration for the week that is to come amounts to anything like what it should amount to there will be a tremendous rush at the registration place during the closing days. Mr. Reed decided yesterday that he would keep the office open until six o'clock at night during this week.

If your name is not yet on the books and you are entitled to have it there you will save yourself and others a great deal of inconvenience by going at once and having it entered.

If you did not vote at the last election, held last April, your name has been stricken from the list.

Register this morning and have it done. Then vote at the election November 5, and you will not need to register again next spring nor at any time in the future until you allow an election to go by without voting.

The bricks being used in the new opera house are causing some difficulty to the builders. DEFENSE CHALLENGED WHOLE POWERS JURY

By Associated Press.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 14.—After the jury was completed this afternoon in the trial of ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with being accessory to the murder of Governor Goebel, the defense challenged the whole jury, charging it with political bias and the officers of the court with packing the jury for the purpose of conviction. Both sides presented affidavits and arguments, after which Judge Cantrill overruled the motion of the defense to disqualify the jury and also a demurrer to the indictment to which the defense took exceptions. Witnesses were then sworn and a list of attorneys on both sides furnished the court. Prosecutor Franklin read the indictment against Powers and Col. T. C. Campbell stated what the commonwealth expected to prove.

The prosecution introduced its first witness, D. Meade Woodson, the surveyor who drew the plot of the state house square at Frankfort, showing the spot where Governor Goebel fell. Mr. Woodson testified as to the probable course of the bullet that killed Goebel.

Mr. Woodson testified that, according to the measurements made by him the bullet which killed Goebel, came from the office of Caleb Powers.

Court adjourned until tomorrow. Judge Cantrill today notified those present that at future sessions of the Powers trial all persons, lawyers, jurors or spectators, will be searched for arms before they are allowed in the court room.

A GROUNDLESS RUN ON A BUFFALO BANK

By Associated Press.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 14.—A run on the Fidelity Trust company, a state banking institution, began today. A long line of anxious depositors stood for hours waiting to withdraw their money. Extra paying tellers were installed and their windows were kept open until 4 o'clock.

Prominent bankers and business men say that the rumor which caused the run is groundless and that only small depositors are withdrawing their accounts. Several large deposits were made during the day by business houses and large sums of money were sent to the Fidelity company's offices by local banks. The Erie County Savings bank voluntarily turned over $250,000 in cash to the Fidelity company. The Marine bank also sent in $100,000. The money was accepted, but not as a loan. New York drafts were sent to the two institutions for the cash. At the close of business today President Foreman stated that the withdrawals exceeded the deposits by only $50,000.

The Fidelity Trust company is not a member of the clearing house association but an official offer of assistance was made to President Foreman by the clearing house today. President Foreman declined to accept, saying the bank needed no assistance.

NEWS NOTES FROM PUEBLO

George Gould Pleased With His Visit--Great Enlargement of the Steel Plant.

Pueblo Bureau.
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Pueblo, Oct. 14.—George Gould, the multi-millionaire and president of the Missouri Pacific railway system, arrived in Pueblo today, accompanied by a large party of lesser railroad dignitaries, for a trip of inspection over the system. It is believed that as a result of Mr. Gould's visit an effort is to be made to bring the Rio Grande railroad into closer relationship with the great Missouri Pacific. It is also believed that the visit means improvements all over the system in general, and in Pueblo in particular, including the removal of the repair shops at Burnham to this city. The story that Mr. Gould seeks to acquire the Colorado and Southern was not touched upon by the magnate himself, but a man close to the young multi-millionaire stated that nothing was further from Mr. Gould's mind.

In the party were Mr. Gould's wife and children, Second Vice President Warner, General Manager Russell Harding, General Traffic Manager W. C. Stith of St. Louis, General Freight Agent J. C. Lincoln of St. Louis and one or two others. They were met here by Superintendent O. L. Derby of the Missouri Pacific, Commercial Agent Wm. Hoke, also of the Missouri Pacific, Superintendent J. J. Burns of the Rio Grande and by Williford Dey, president of the business men's association, ex-Governor Alva Adams and James N. Carlisle. The party went to the steel works, where they were escorted by C. S. Robinson, superintendent of mines, Manager McKennan and Superintendent Lee. Mr. Gould was very much interested in the works and insisted on seeing every feature of them. He expressed great astonishment at the growth of the plant and said: "Well this is no small affair. I am more than pleased." He asked about the details of the local management of the Rio Grande and asked: "How did people like my getting the Rio Grande?" When told that they were much pleased, he expressed his satisfaction. Mr. Gould will return to Pueblo in about a week and will be given a banquet at the Minnequa club by the business men's association.

Within the next eight or ten months the Pueblo plant of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company will be employing 10,000 men and will be the largest individual steel plant in the world. This assertion is made by high officials of the company. Excavations for the 20 new mills and the bolt and hearth steel furnaces is well under way, and when completed the mills will cover a mile of ground.

A transfer of real estate was made today by Thos. J. Fisher, trustee of the East Pueblo Land trust, to the American Smelting and Refining company. The consideration was $9,850. The land is to be used for extension to the Pueblo smelter, and not, as reported, for the new zinc smelter.

Colonel Harlan J. Smith tonight formally assumed command of the Second regiment, N. G. C., and announced the appointment of Geo. H. Sweney to be regimental sergeant major. R. H. Minton was appointed regimental quartermaster sergeant. Colonel Smith stated that the new company to be organized in Colorado Springs is ready to be mustered in.

Democrats of Pueblo held their first rally tonight and the small Board of Trade hall was about half filled. Ex-Governor Alva Adams was the principal speaker, remarks also being made by the various candidates.

Routine business took up the greater part of the time of the city council at its meeting last night. Applications for new electric lights being remarkably numerous, the $1,000 reward offered for the murdered of Cris Funk two years ago and since returned to the city, was divided between the night and south side force on the streets.

John S. Vail has sold a big tract of land between the Philadelphia smelter and the city, upon which formerly stood the old Massachusetts smelter, and which was recently purchased by Mr. Vail, for the C. F. and I. company. It will be used for improvements to the steel works.

Clay Craft, the 14-year-old son of Mrs. E. W. Craft, died early this morning as the result of injuries received yesterday at Florence. Clay beat his way to Florence and was trying to board a switch engine in the yards there when he fell under the wheels. His right leg was severed below the knee and he never rallied from the shock. The boy's father, who was a prominent resident of Pueblo, died a few months ago.

The United States district and circuit court will open in Pueblo tomorrow, with Judge Riner of Wyoming presiding. The grand jury will be impaneled tomorrow.

ELKTON

Special to the Gazette.

Elkton, Oct. 14.—Charles M. Defebaugh, a miner, 60 years of age, employed at the Elkton mine, sustained a serious injury at 5:30 o'clock this morning in an accident at the mine. A round of shots had just been split and Defebaugh thought he was out of the way of danger when they exploded. A flying piece of rock came through the lagging and struck him to the right of the bridge of his nose. The rock destroyed the sight of the right eye and crashed through the frontal bone into the brain. The injured man was able to walk to the office of Drs. Polly & Polly, where an operation was performed. The rock was removed from the brain, as well as the splinters of bone and a small portion of brain matter. Defebaugh was able to walk to his home and will recover, unless inflammation of the brain tissues sets in.

A brother-in-law of Robert Worden, whose name is stated to be Bentain, took an overdose of morphine this afternoon with suicidal intent. Dr. Sullivan is tonight working over the man and it is not known whether or not he will recover. Bentain came here a few days ago and not being able to secure work, grew despondent. He went to Victor this afternoon, procuring the drug and returning to Elkton, took a large part of it.

The Republicans will hold a grand rally in Elkton tomorrow night.

Special to the Gazette.

Goldfield, Oct. 14.—The Republicans have completed their canvass of this city and Independence. The result is very gratifying to the party managers, as it shows a great gain over the last canvass taken.

Justice of the Peace McDougall of Independence staggered into Dr. Van Norman's office this evening with his shoulder dislocated and his hip bruised and several bruises upon his head and body. The doctor attended to his injuries and states that Mr. McDougall fell off the F. and C. C. trestle west of the city.

Rev. Dr. Helser preached the funeral sermon. The interment was at Sunny Side cemetery and Coroner T. F. Dunn conducted the funeral.

JOHN MOST SENTENCED

One Year in the Penitentiary for Publishing Seditious Article.

DEFENSE EMPHASIZED CRIME

The Judge Read a Written Opinion on Criminality of Article in Question.

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 14.—Johann Most, the anarchist, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary today in the court of special sessions, for publishing in his paper, the Freiheit, an alleged seditious article on the day following the shooting of the late President McKinley.

The article in question was entitled "Murder Against Murder." In his defense Herr Most claimed that the paper containing the article was printed and ready for distribution before the president was shot. Also that it was a quotation from an article published 50 years ago and re-published by him. After imposing the sentence, Justice Hinsdale read the opinion of the court, in which he said:

"It is no answer to the evil and criminal nature of this article to claim that it was written for the purpose of destroying crowned heads. It inculcates and enforces the idea that murder is the proper remedy to be applied against rulers. The fact that it was published 50 years ago and again republished about 15 years ago only emphasizes and gives added point to the criminality of the republishing of it at any time. It shows deliberate intent to inculcate and promulgate the doctrines of the article. This we hold to be a criminal act. It is not necessary to trace any connection in this article with the assassination of the late president. The offense here is in the eyes of the law is precisely the same as if the bloody event had never occurred. The murder of the president only serves to illustrate and illuminate the enormity of the crime of the defendant in teaching his diabolical doctrine."

HOSE WAGON MET WITH AN ACCIDENT

The fire department was called to the home of Miss Dorsey, No. 719 North Cascade avenue yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. A lot of smoke issuing from the house caused the alarm to be sent in but the department had nothing to do. Investigation showed that a stove pipe had become overheated and was smoking. There was no fire and no damage was done.

No. 2 hose wagon, in responding to the alarm from the north end station, suffered a slight accident. One of the springs was broken. No serious damage was done and the wagon was sent around to the blacksmith shop to be fixed up. While it was undergoing repairs the members of No. 2 company did duty at the central station. They will be back at their old stand today.

BURGLARS DINED ON FISH AND OYSTERS

Burglars entered the Pearl Oyster and Fish house at 14 East Kiowa street, early yesterday morning. The burglary was not discovered until about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and was immediately reported to the police.

The burglars went around to the side of the building and made a hole in the window pane large enough to permit of the passing of a hand through it. The burglars then reached in and unfastened the window and raised it. They went into the building and ransacked the cash drawer but fortunately there was nothing in it but a few pennies. The burglars later went through the store and helped themselves to fish and oysters and then opened the back door and departed. The thieves took the key to the back door and locked the door after them, carrying off the key.

The police have no clews to work on.

MAKING SCHOOL ROOM OUT OF AN OFFICE

A class room is being made for the use of the eighth grade at the High school out of the room which has been used as the headquarters of the board of education and Secretary Collins. The room will soon be ready for occupancy by the pupils.

The change is only temporary, as by next year the board hopes to provide quarters for the eighth grade elsewhere. Secretary Collins will have his desk in Superintendent Dietrich's office and the board will hold its meetings there.

Y. M. C. A. CONGRESS DISCUSSES ANARCHY

The second meeting of the sixth session of the Y. M. C. A. congress was held last evening at the old congress hall. Owing to a serious illness of Speaker Karl Schuyler, the meeting was called to order by the clerk of the house and immediately Mr. Mark Skinner was chosen speaker pro tem. After the opening ceremonies were completed, several bills and resolutions were introduced among which was one bill for the immediate construction and equipment of an isthmian canal. Several new members were sworn in and representation assigned to them. The constitutional amendment which provided for a vice speaker, that was introduced at the last meeting was adopted and Mark Skinner was unanimously elected to fill the newly created office. On the call of the orders of the day the bill for the suppression of anarchy was brought up for discussion and a very lively debate ensued which was principally aimed at the effects of the bill.

The third meeting of the congress this year will be held next Monday evening, at which time the bill for the restriction of immigration will be called up for discussion. All members are urgently requested to be present and prepared to speak upon the immigration bill.

MRS. OGLE'S FUNERAL—The funeral of Mrs. E. M. Ogle, wife of B. T. Ogle, who died on Friday at St. Francis hospital, took place Sunday. Mrs. Ogle's home was at No. 1008 South Nevada avenue.

POLITICS A BUSINESS.

A Sport in England, A Profession in Germany.

"Politics is a business. That's what's the matter with it. That's what is the matter with everything art, literature, religion, journalism, law, medicine they're all business and all as you see them. Make politics a sport, as they do in England, or a profession, as they do in Germany, and will have well something else than we have now. If we want it, which is another question. But don't try to reform politics with the banker, the lawyer and the dry goods merchant, for these are business men, and there are two great hindrances to their achievement of reform: one is that they are different from, but not much better than, the politicians; the other is that politics is not their line. There are exceptions both ways. Many politicians have gone into business, and done well (New York city has ex-Mayor Grant, John D. Crimmins, and others), and a few business men have gone into politics and done well (Mark Hanna). They haven't reformed their adopted trades, however, though they have sometimes reorganized and developed them.

"The politician is a business man with a specialty. When a business man of some other line learns the business of politics he is a politician. There is not much reform left in him. What is the common, ordinary business man means, however, who never fails to neglect politics, is that some other business man should give up the business, take an office and conduct public business in the interest of the people—that is, in the interest of the busy business man and disregard the business of politics. Now and then such a man comes along. He is elected by an 'awakened public conscience;' he defies the politicians and ignores the politics of his office, trusting to the people to re-elect or promote him. When his term expires the politicians are awakened, they have been attending to his business and lifeless and the people these busy business men—satisfied with the good business man's conduct in office, are busy. They do not go to the primaries, they stay away from the polls. The good business man is defeated and returns to the business he knows, respected but retired. (Abram S. Hewitt, for a fine example.)

"That is all very well, but it isn't politics; it doesn't succeed. (Business men bow to this test.) Neither is it business; it doesn't pay. (Politicians bow to this test.) There is no profit in it for the community or the man himself. He may say that he saved his self-esteem and his good name, that he is a merchant and his term in office was a side show, but his words are hollow boastings. Confession of failure hurts, and what is the use to a community of a political side show? Reform waves do no good except where they improve and strengthen the machines they were meant to demolish. That they often do, Tammany has been helped by reform movements in New York city, never harmed. A whipping at the polls teaches a man like Croker that, for example, New Yorkers really care for clean streets; Colonel Waring's administration taught the boss and the people that clean streets were possible and pleasant as Mr. Croker was able to say to Big Tom Brennan: 'Here, Tom, you won't do as commissioner of street cleaning. You'll have to be satisfied with a commissionership of charities.' The big Toms resigning this as good politics, and Croker is in a position, without hurting himself with the boys, to give a little better government and thus establish more soundly his machine; for the people say, 'Well, Tammany gives us clean streets, anyhow.'"—(J. Lincoln Steffens in Ainslee's.

"He Believes in Me."

There is nothing which quite takes the place, in a boy's life, of the confidence that somebody—his teacher, brother, sister, father, mother, friend—believes in him.

One of the most discouraging things to a youth who is apparently dull, but is conscious of real power and ability to succeed, is to be depreciated by those around him, to feel that his parents and teachers do not understand him, that they look upon him as a probable failure.

When into the life of such a boy there comes the loving assurance that somebody has discovered him, has seen in him possibilities undreamed of by others, that moment there is born with it in him a new hope, a light that will never cease to be an inspiration and encouragement.

If you believe in a boy, if you see any real ability in him (and every human being is born with ability to do some one thing well) tell him so; tell him that you believe he has the making of a man in him. Such assurance has often proved of greater advantage to a youth than cash capital.

"There is inspiration in: 'He believes in me.'"—(October Success.

NEWS NOTES FROM DENVER

Supreme Court Reserved Decision --Exposition Board Held a Short Session.

Denver Bureau Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver, Oct. 14.—Arguments over the many questions that have arisen during the progress of the revenue trial, were heard before the supreme court today. The arguments were over, first, the question of the state board of assessors being in contempt of the supreme court for sending out assessment rolls; second, the question of the jurisdiction of Judge Dixon in the entire case; and third, the request of the attorneys for the corporations that the several county assessors be directed to return to the state board of assessors the assessment roll.

Each side was given two and one half hours in which to present their respective cases, and at the close of the argument, the court adjourned until next Monday, without announcing a decision. The lawyers were ordered to file their written briefs by Wednesday morning, and the assessors were instructed to go home until sent for. The contempt charges against Attorney General Post were not considered during the day.

The railroads were represented by Attorneys Teller, Wattermah, Gaft and Rodgers, while Attorney Morrison presented the argument for the state. Both parties gave their respective sides to the case in a seemingly complete form, and as Attorney General Post said, after the argument was over, "the court is now fully advised in all the disputed points, and can settle all of them at one time."

Attorney Morrison contended that the authorities were not in contempt because the cause justified the means taken, that the limitation of time made it necessary that the assessment rolls be sent out, and they had to choose between an implied order of the court and their oaths of office, and they chose the latter. He contended also that Judge Dixon had no jurisdiction in the matter; that if the suit was to be brought against the board as a body, it must be brought in Arapahoe county, and if as individuals, in their respective residence counties. The attorneys for the corporation contended that the court should sustain its own integrity by meeting out punishment to whoever would violate its orders, and termed the argument of the state "petitfogery," inasmuch as it applied to their adherency to their oaths of office. They contended that the corporations had been content to wait until the matter was pending before the supreme court, and the other side should have done likewise; they contended that under the provisions of the constitution, the assessors could not assess the corporate property.

During his speech before the court Attorney Teller laid great stress upon the statement that their clients possessed over $200,000,000 worth of the taxable property of the state, which was equal to nearly one half of that property, and that they should have some say as to who should tax it. He contended that the county assessor under the constitution of the state, could only assess the local property in their respective counties, and that the state board of equalization should assess the corporate property.

When Mr. Morrison began his answer to Mr. Teller, he referred to the statements of the latter gentleman and said: "He claims that he represents $200,000,000 worth of property. The state authorities have only valued the property of his clients at $135,000,000, or $65,000,000 below what he admits they possess. If they wish that the state board of equalization shall raise their valuation to the $200,000,000 mark, we have no objection."

The St. Louis exposition board held a short session today, and adjourned until the first Monday in November. No important business was transacted, as it was impossible for Commissioner-in-Chief Thatcher to be present, on account of the illness of his wife.

The state board of equalization held a short session this afternoon and adjourned until tomorrow morning when a representative from the Armour Packing company will be heard.

Thomas Bassford, a traveling salesman for an eastern blank book bindery, made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide in his room in the St. James hotel this morning, by slashing himself with a razor. Despondency over large imaginary wrongs, together with too much liquor, was the cause. His home is in London, England.

A report from Como states that the preliminary hearing of Mmes. Vallie and Baker, who are under arrest charged with the murder of Mr. Vallie, will be held Thursday morning. The late date is arranged in order to allow time for the securing of witnesses.

While examining a number of applicants for naturalization papers this morning, Judge Lindsey asked one of them if he sympathized with the cause of anarchy. The fellow hesitated a moment, before finally answering, "No." The court noticed the hesitancy, and said:

"No one who believes in the principles of anarchy or who sympathizes with anarchists in any way, can become a citizen of the United States through this court."

Henry Kaplan, a peddler who recently came to this city from Texas, was found dead in his room at 1923 Arapahoe street this morning. Apoplexy is believed to have been the cause of his death. His mother lives in Jerusalem. He is 35 years old.

Miss Eliza C. Gallup died at her home 1622 Ogden street, last night, from a complication of diseases. She was 74 years old, and leaves an estate of Denver property valued at $10,000.

Dr. Sterling Johnson is another one of the physicians in the city who contends that he was injured by a recent statement given out by the state board of medical examiners. They had a capias sworn out for his arrest on the ground that he was practising without a license. He contends that he had a license issued him in 1890 by the state medical board of Colorado, and that it is signed by every member of the board. He is very indignant at the treatment accorded him by the present board.

Deputy Health Commissioner A. A. Cameron, who so mysteriously disappeared from this city about three months ago, has been located. One of his friends received a letter from him this morning which had been mailed from Oklahoma. He gives no reason for his sudden departure, or for the uneasiness he caused his family because of his absence. His wife is having a very difficult time in this city in order to support herself and two children.

FLORENCE

Special to the Gazette.

Florence, Oct. 14.—Mrs. C. H. Bissell has been elected delegate to the synodical meeting of the Woman's Missionary society to be held in Cheyenne this week.

A. Huber, who is well known to mining men throughout the state, and who so successfully managed the affairs of the Copper King mine in this county, will leave Colorado Springs for Nuremberg, Germany, next Saturday. While absent he will visit London where he will meet moneyed men who are seeking investments in Colorado mining.

Daniel McLaren, a mining expert of national reputation, was here today. He has been employed by Mr. Barnes of the Montezuma mining properties near Coaldale, in this county, to expert the claims, and the examination will commence this week. His report is likely to influence English capital in investment in mining in the Greenhorn range.

The Pan Gold Mining company, operating at Crestone, San Luis Valley, in which several Florence people are interested, today shipped a carload of gold-bearing ore to the Rocky Mountain smelter. This is for test purposes, and if it proves profitable regular shipments will be made. This is the first carload of ore shipped from that mine.

TO ENLIGHTEN THE CLEAR CREEK VALLEY

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Oct. 14.—A scheme is on foot for the purpose of organizing a company that will have for its ends the lighting by electricity of all the towns in the Clear Creek valley and immediate vicinity. The papers for this company will be filed in a few days. It is the purpose to build a reservoir at the junction of the Grande and Fraxier rivers, near Hot Sulphur Springs. This reservoir will supply a storage of water which will be used to produce electricity for the purpose of lighting and furnishing power to the towns of this valley. E. A. Lee has already completed the plans for the reservoir. It will mean an outlay of about one half million dollars, and will furnish light for Georgetown, Black Hawk, Idaho Springs, Silver Plume, Eldora, Ward, Golden and others.

STATE LAND BOARD LEASED OIL LANDS

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Oct. 14.—The state land board today leased 22,600 acres of oil land to ten different parties in the state. This is the largest acreage of oil land ever leased at one time by the board, and the revenue that will be derived from today's contracts, will amount to tens of thousands of dollars annually.

The land, with the exception of a few sections in Routt county, was leased at from $50 to $100 per section. That of Routt county was leased without charge for the purpose of inviting capital to develop the oil fields in that section of the state. The lessees are to sink an oil well to the depth of 2,500 feet or, fraction thereof, until oil is found in every section which they have leased, annually. The leases range from 300 to 7,600 acres. A mineral lease was also granted to George K. Blazer of El Paso county. It consists of 20 acres.

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Socialists Challenge Republicans and Democrats to Joint Debate on Politics.

Cripple Creek Bureau Colorado Springs Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 14.—The Socialists of Teller county have challenged the county central committees of the Republican and Democratic parties to enter into a joint debate upon political and economic questions of the day. The Republicans have accepted the challenge and T. B. McDonald will defend the tenets and policies of the party. General Eugene Engley will represent the Socialists. The Democrats have not yet accepted the challenge, but it is thought that they will do so and that J. M. Brinson will represent the party. The date of the debate has not yet been decided upon, but will probably take place at the opera house within a week.

The order given out by the Woods Investment company from Victor several days ago, requiring all employes of the company to live outside of Cripple Creek, went into effect today. As a result a number of miners employed at the Doctor-Jack Pot and other mines, in which the big Victor company is interested, left their work. They were given the choice of moving out of Cripple Creek or quitting their positions. Some of the Cripple Creek men consented to leave the county seat, but others who own their homes and have their families residing here, preferred their time checks. Harry E. Woods stated tonight that no men were discharged, but that seven at the Doctor-Jack Pot property asked for their time. Henry Keating, ex-president of Miners union No. 40, and one of the men who left the employ of the Doctor-Jack Pot company, states that he refused to move from Cripple Creek and was discharged. He was an ore sorter at the mine. He further states that James Burns, Will Connors, D. H. Barge and Joe Grobocker, other ore sorters were also discharged. It is not known tonight how many Cripple Creek men who were employed in the Woods Investment company's properties yesterday are today without work. A. E. Carlton, president of the Doctor-Jack Pot company, said tonight: "The matter will be looked into at once."

At a meeting of the Trades assembly Sunday night the following resolutions were unanimously adopted after a spirited discussion:

"Whereas, A certain company doing business in this district, known as the Woods Investment company, having failed to secure the franchise to furnish light in the town of Cripple Creek on account of said franchise having been awarded to a lower bidder; said Woods Investment company is now seeking revenge by inaugurating a most tyrannical policy against those of their workmen who live in the town of Cripple Creek, men who had nothing to do with the awarding of the light franchise, by dictating to them as to where they shall live; thus working hardship, especially on those who own their own homes, and,

"Whereas, Should such tyrannical system take root in this district no class of citizens, in whatever part of the district they live, can feel secure from its oppressive effect; be it therefore

"Resolved, By the Cripple Creek District Trades and Labor assembly, which represents organized labor of the entire district, that we most strenuously protest against this unjust policy of the Woods Investment company in the matter of compelling their men to move out of any town where they choose to live, as being tyrannical, iniquitous and totally unjustifiable, and, be it further

"Resolved, That we call upon all fair-minded citizens of whatever calling, organized or unorganized, who are residents of any parts of the Cripple Creek district to join us in protesting against this monstrous injustice, which, if once inaugurated, must sooner or later grow to the extent of becoming oppressive to all classes of citizens."

J. L. Jewett, manager of the Elite laundry, was held up and robbed in front of his place of business on 3rd West Masonic avenue, by two masked men tonight. The hold-ups secured three or four dollars in change and then made their escape.

Sam Robinson, a colored man, while drunk this evening, drew a revolver in a Myers avenue saloon and fired in the air. He was arrested by Night Marshal Bross.

Of the eighteen informations filed with the clerk of the district court on Saturday, six were directed against persons operating slot machines in their places of business. The defendants are Wm. Brooks, of the Dawson club, Wm. Miller, of Bon Ton hall; John G. Bernard, of the Colorado Liquor House; Anna Biedman, William Van der Weyden, the Democratic alderman from the third ward and the proprietor of the saloon at Third street and Myers avenue, and Henry Reinhart of the Normandie club on Meyers avenue. The complaints were sworn to by J. L. Rice, a carpenter, and T. S. Faris, a miner. District Judge Seeds fixed the bond at $500 in each case. The cases will probably be heard in the December term of court.

A. E. Carlton, president of the First National bank of this city returned home this morning from New York, and gave out the following interview: "There is plenty of money in the east, and a great amount of it is now seeking investment. Cripple Creek in my opinion, will come in for her share. It is not a hard proposition now to interest capital in the Cripple Creek mines. They have heard of this district, know of the large producing mines, and that a large number of the [illegible] paying regular dividends. There is a vast difference regarding this camp today and what it was a few years ago. The country is in a very prosperous condition, and the financial men are well pleased and feel secure with the reins of government in the hands of President Roosevelt.

The following location certificates were filed for record with the county clerk today: The Big Horn Nos. 1 and 2, by C. G. Heinrecy, et al.; the Badger, Bonder City and Emily L. lodes in the Fountain creek district, by E. B. Hilton and David Nelson; the Boston lode, by A. W. S. Rothermel, et al.; the Bonner lode by J. Kler, et al.; the Little Bukoven lode by Mathias Bukoven.

A mining deed dated January 10, 1901, was filed with the county clerk today in which the Arvilla Tunnel and Mining company transferred to the Little Joan Mining company, the Cactus and Cllonjan lodes, for a nominal consideration. Another deed was filed in which N. B. Dawson and W. L. Parker transfers to Caleb Bunt the Pawnee lode for a consideration of $250.

The Mt. Pisgah Mining and Milling company today gave a deed of trust to Albert Suite and Frank P. Flieger of Chicago, for the Coolbaugh, Anna & C., South Side, West End, and Sans Souci lode claims, together with machinery. The amount involved is $3,355.50.

S. Bosch commenced suit in the district court today against the F. & C. C. railroad company and the Midland Terminal railway company, to recover the value of two cows which, he says, were killed through the negligence of defendant companies. He states that the F. & C. C. company killed a cow worth $150 on May 27, 1901, and that the Midland Terminal company killed a $200 cow on July 17, 1901. He sues for these amounts with interest.

Hugh C. Rhine commenced suit for divorce in the county court today from Lillie A. Rhine upon the ground of desertion. The couple were married at Corning, Ia., on September 21, 1898.

Marriage licenses were issued today to M. D. Coll and Mary MacDonald, both of Victor, and to J. R. Witherspoon and Ruby Townsend, both of Gurley.

The management of Union park intends to turn the park into an ice skating rink this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Levy and sons have left for Kansas City, Mo., where they will reside in the future. Kennedy & Arnold, the local brokers, have taken charge of the business of M. W. Levy & Co.

Charles H. Berry left today on a three days' visit to the northern section of the county.

LEADVILLE

(Special Correspondence.)

Leadville, Oct. 13.—After several days of uncertainty the belief is now strong that Charles Grabert, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the Cloud City, is a defaulter and at present hiding from the officers of the law. Yesterday a warrant was sworn out for his arrest but it remains unserved as Grabert's whereabouts are entirely unknown.

Mr. Grabert, before leaving had the handling of the funds of the A. O. U. W., the Select Knights, the G. A. R., and other orders and shortly before leaving town he borrowed various sums from his friends which brings the total amount of the shortage to be accounted for to nearly $15,000. Trust companies which have him bonded will make the shortage good to the lodges of which he was a member and are understood to be making every effort to apprehend him. Mr. Grabert's family is highly respected and scores of friends are loath to believe but that he will yet return and make an acceptable explanation of his disappearance. No one is able to state what was done with the funds which were misappropriated.

Another disappearance is still unexplained, that of John P. Griffin, a county commissioner of Lake county. The board of county commissioners has not yet declared the office vacant, but nothing has now been heard from the missing official for nearly three months. He was treasurer of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and his bondsmen have been called upon to make up a deficiency of several hundreds of dollars.

Leadville has been infested with burglars, safe-blowers and foot-pads lately until there seems to be little or no security for property unless protected by guards or the strongest safes. The latest of the attempts on life and property occurred Friday night when Geo. Jacobs was returning to his home with the proceeds of the day's business in his pocket. While passing a dark alley two masked men appeared and ordered him to throw up his hands. Instead of doing this Jacobs took to his heels and was not even stopped by shots being fired after him, one of which acted an ugly wound in the shoulder. Other cases of outlawry recently reported are the blowing up of the safe in Malloy's saloon, the burglary of the millinery store of M. J. Frantz, and the breaking of several cars in the Colorado Midland yards and stealing of valuable merchandise.

Herbert Allen, John Giurcoviteh, George Pearson and George Holmes were recently arrested in Denver and are now being held here for the cracking of the Malloy safe and the same parties are supposed to be guilty of several other offenses.

The arrangements for Leadville's miners' drilling carnival have now been practically completed and is expected to be the greatest event of the kind ever held in the west. Four prizes will be given for drilling double-handed in Gunnison granite, $750, $350, $200 and $150, respectively, with an entrance fee of $20, for each team. It is thought this will draw the best talent of the Rocky Mountain region. The date of the carnival has been fixed as October 24, 25, and 26. S. D. Nicholson, J. F. McDonald and E. J. McCarty will act as judges while the arrangements committee consists of S. D. Nicholson, A. V. Bohn, Arthur Lumsdon, Frank Pare and E. J. McCarty.

TRINIDAD

(Special Correspondence.)

Trinidad, Oct. 13.—Two important real estate deals were closed last week involving nearly $50,000. I. H. and W. M. Repp purchased the McCormack block at the corner of Main and Commercial streets for $28,000. They will soon expend $2,000 for installing a steam heating plant and other improvements which will make this a comfortable office building. The Nicoll brothers have purchased the Trinidad hotel property for $8,500. In addition there have been several smaller trades closed during the week.

Rev. O. Samuels has let the contract for the erection of a two-story business block on his Main street lots to be completed by February 1.

The Presbyterian church has bought the Wise lot on Commercial street adjoining their church property. This gives them a very desirable site with a frontage of 50 feet. The old church building will be removed at once and a handsome new edifice will soon stand in its place.

The opera house now under new management has been thoroughly renovated. The new manager has secured a place for the house in the southwestern circuit and Trinidad will enjoy more of the higher class shows this winter than heretofore.

County court has been in session this week with no business of special importance. The case against A. E. Johnson, manager of the Colorado [illegible] company, was dismissed.

The Pierian club held its first meeting for the year last Wednesday. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Peters delegates to the state federation, made their reports. Mrs. G. W. Hines and Mrs. W. W. Dowld were elected president and secretary, respectively, for the next year.

The United Mine Workers held a convention here this week. Addresses were made by President Garman of the federation of labor, Labor Commissioner Smith, and Max Morris, secretary of the Retail Clerks National association. The proceedings were secret and nothing was made public except the election of officers. When it was decided to hold the convention here the citizens thought to strike advantage to be gained in unionizing the camps in this district. It is not believed that the convention and any influence the miners of this county who are not satisfied with prevailing conditions.

Declare There Is A Sure Cure for Nervous Ailments.

Use of Paine's Celery Is Openly Advised.

Wonderful Results Recently Effected by Compound.

Buffalo, Oct. 8, 1901.—An evening paper publishes a symposium of physicians' opinions regarding the efficacy of various remedies for the cure of nervous prostration and attendant ills. Each physician was asked to express his opinion, first, whether those diseases were curable when once they had gained a hold upon the patient, and, second, whether the same remedy would be beneficial in all cases.

Without exception, the physicians interviewed declared that nervous prostration, when not too far advanced, insomnia, rheumatism, indigestion, resulting, as it most frequently does, from deranged nerves, dizzy headaches and most liver and kidney complaints, were absolutely curable.

But the answer to the second question was most remarkable, because, with two exceptions, all the doctors mentioned by name Paine's celery compound, a well-known remedy, manufactured by Wells & Richardson Co. of Burlington, Vt., and first discovered by the eminent Dr. Edward Phelps, some years ago, after a thorough investigation and the accumulation of a great deal of data, both here and in Germany.

"It is probably the one instance," says the newspaper, "where a prepared remedy has been generally indorsed by physicians of such standing. It seems that the formula of the compound has always been furnished to physicians in regular standing, and that the remedy is generally prescribed by up-to-date practitioners both here and in England and Germany, where it is quite as well-known as in this country.

Many wonderful cures by the use of this famous compound are cited, one of them the well-known case of Commodore Howell of Washington.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND FEDERAL APPOINTEES.

The following significant dispatch appeared in the daily press last Saturday morning

> Washington Oct 11 At the cabinet meeting today the president is said to have told the members that the character of Republicans who hold office in the south must be improved and that this policy will be carried out in all other states

To those who know President Roosevelt personally or who have watched his career with any degree of care the above information will not cause any surprise

In every office which he has held in every public declaration upon the subject which he has made he has consistently advocated the employment of the best man for the place

Public office with him is not regarded as a private snap but an occupation which requires the best talent and the most devoted attention of the most honorable man who can be induced to accept it His record as civil service commissioner as president of the New York police board as assistant secretary of the navy as governor of New York bears witness of his convictions upon this question

Roosevelt is not a machine man He has not been dependent for his political success upon the devious workings of those who gain party domination by midnight meetings or public favor through a back door or a dark lantern entrance

He has made his fights in the open and he has won by appealing to the people rather than by cringing to the politicians

Neither has he ever believed it possible for the stream of political purity to rise higher than its source nor for appointees to office to be any better than those who vouch for them

He detests personal immorality and political depravity will find no supporter or defender in him

Those deluded federal office holders who think they may win spurs of honor from him by neglecting their posts of duty to create and operate political machines will probably discover their mistake when it is too late to mend their political fortunes

He will belie his entire past life if he permits such conduct on the part of his own appointees or those who hold office under his control

Just why any person should hold a federal office who is not fit personally or morally for an equally important position in private life has many times been a mystery to the American public, and it is refreshing to know that so early in his term President Roosevelt has determined that no opprobrium shall attach to him nor to his administration by having such persons in the public service.

WELCOME TO THE ODD FELLOWS

THE Gazette voices the unanimous sentiment of the citizens of Colorado Springs in welcoming the grand lodge of Odd Fellows The visitors come from all parts of our great state and they are representative of the leading business men of their communities They come on a mission of love and charity for the work of carrying on the grand lodge of a fraternal and charitable order like the Odd Fellows is as much the work of love and charity as is the actual bestowing of alms. Organization is the world's watch word today and the Odd Fellows are among the best organized of the fraternal bodies

This great order was founded in Baltimore in 1819 so that it is approaching the century mark It had a rapid growth as soon as its works and tenets began to be known among men Like other secret societies it had a serious backset during the war but it recovered from that and is now bigger stronger and better prepared for the work it has to do in the world than ever before in its history

Colorado's grand lodge is becoming known as one of the strong bodies in the order and its leaders are capable It is these men with representatives from the Rebekahs and the Patriarchs Militant affiliated bodies that we are entertaining Their good works are done secretly so far as the individual is concerned but the order has done so much since it was planted in this state many years ago that it is recognized as a power for good We hope that those who have come to the grand lodge sessions will not only succeed in transacting all the business necessary but that they will have the best time in all their lives No doubt the local lodge men are looking after that and they have an excellent reputation as entertainers

Undoubtedly it is all right for the cabinet to make as full an examination into the questions affecting the Pacific ocean cable that Mr Mackay proposes to build as is necessary Any reasonable rights that are asked should be immediately granted In fact we do not see that any body has any rights to grant. It seems that it is to be an American company with American capital and touch American territory altogether so who is to prevent the building of it A Pacific cable is a necessity, and the fact that some capital is now ready to build it without a subsidy speaks a volume for the increase of American business with the orient. Cyrus Field did not have to get consent to land his cable that we have ever heard of and a number of foreign companies have been given rights so Mr Mackay and his associates should be as little hindered as possible on this side of the water

Carrie Nation will soon be competent to write a book on "Jails That I Have Met"

TERRITORIES KNOCKING AT THE DOOR.

UNDOUBTEDLY a very strong effort will be made at the coming session of congress to secure the admission of Arizona and New Mexico Conventions are being held in both those territories this month for the purpose of securing joint action of some kind Although both the territories have sufficient population they have never been able to secure an act from congress admitting them to the union of states

The argument chiefly against them is the character of a majority of the residents As an off set to that however, the applicants can always point to the experience of Colorado Utah and other states that admission has always been followed by a rapid increase in population of a very desirable kind A home government beats the carpet bag kind every time That the territories will find opponents to their ambition is voiced in the following from the Providence Journal

> The population of Arizona is less than that of New Mexico but it has ordinarily been regarded as superior in quality There has been a large New England invasion of the territory and much eastern capital is invested there The soil is arid until watered by irrigation, when it blossoms like the rose In both territories there are rich mineral deposits and where water has been introduced by artificial means the most various crops have been raised The future of both looks bright, but many of us would be unwilling to see either admitted as a state at the present time when the inequality of population among the present members of the union is so startling New York has more than seven million inhabitants Nevada less than forty three thousand To say that we let some of our western states in before they had as many inhabitants as Arizona and New Mexico have does not furnish a conclusive argument in behalf of these two Because we are unwise on one occasion does not justify us in emphasizing our unwisdom Moreover there is a territory that deserves to be admitted before these aspirants Oklahoma has a population of half a million and is far better equipped in all the essentials of an American commonwealth than New Mexico and Arizona

DIFFERENCE WHOSE OX IS GORED.

TEXAS of all states in the union has had an "trustfobia" the worst The wickedest thing in the world apparently to the ranger has been a combination of capital But that was before Beaumont spurted up its gushers and now it is different. The oil industry is likely to be swallowed up by the Standard Oil company—greatest of combinations—because of the anti trust laws that were recently enacted in that state Watermelon raisers in the Arkansas valley made very poor progress at the business when they first started in because the individuals did not know whom to ship to did not get the cars ready when they had the melons ready for shipment, etc. Then they organized an association and the crop is now handled in a business like manner

That is what the owners of the oil wells in Beaumont are now facing They find that they cannot meet competition individually and want to get up a big combination to resist the Standard octopus. They have submitted their plan to the attorney general of the state but he declares it illegal Their only hope now seems to be in organizing one company and selling all the oil wells in the state to it which may be a form of trust The Standard Oil people are organized in shape to take up the individual companies now existing, so that it is likely to get the best of it in spite of the state laws In California the new oil fields have had the same trouble and are now organizing big combinations to handle the product

THE DUKE PASSED US BY.

GEORGE, DUKE OF YORK some time king of England had the pleasure yesterday of looking across the Niagara river and inspecting the land of the free and the home of the brave Our fathers and mothers gave his father a mighty good time long long ago when he came over to see us So if we can't show the son around so that he can go home and tell his dad The United States is a very different place from what it was in the early sixties when Edward was here the difference in fact that exists between a big awkward growing school boy and a symmetrically developed young athlete It is an impressive fact that the duke has made this tour all around the world and only landed on British soil He is heir to the most wonderful empire the sun ever shone on it never sets on the British empire

Alexander pushed his conquests into Asia about as far as one can travel in a couple of days railroading The Romans conquered a few hundred miles in land along the borders of the Mediterranean and adjacent country Hannibal overcame many obstacles but his travels were limited The Spaniards made extensive acquisition of territory but failed to hold it Napoleon once rode Europe but he sold a greater territory and a mightier empire when he parted with Louisiana, than any that he ever conquered Russia has a vast landed area but only a small percentage of it is populated It is the English empire that encircles the world and from her dark and foggy capital on the banks of the Thames she dictates the policy of continents and sways the destiny of millions of people of every race color and condition

We are quite sorry George that you could not come over the river and see not an empire ruled by sword and fear but a compact homogeneous patriotic progressive people who have not yet extended themselves around the world but who are doing well nevertheless

The handsomest piece of printing that has come to this office in a long time is an announcement that the New York Evening Post is about to celebrate its one hundredth anniversary On the 16th day of November the Post will issue a beautiful souvenir number which if carried out as planned will be worthy of the event celebrated The Post is one of the best papers in the great metropolis, always typographically neat printed on good paper and conducted on clean lines The Post's century is one of honor That it is a very conservative paper is demonstrated in that at the time of the souvenir issue illustrations will be used for the first time It is to be hoped that the Post will go on for centuries yet to come ever representative of the best traditions in American journalism

Of all the state exchanges that come to this office the Montrose Enterprise seems to be the most enthusiastic in presenting the advantages of the home country to the outside world Their front page nearly every week is devoted to industrial matters regarding the region It is a thing that is bound to tell in the end and is one of the ways in which Colorado Springs has achieved its present greatness

Kirk B Armour left an estate of seven millions made in the pork business in Kansas City He willed it all to his family and the city where he had made so much is in no way remembered Now the Kansas City people are rather of the belief that a man cannot associate over long with hogs without acquiring a few of their ea.

WORKING POLITICS

Demand and Supply Its First Principle

Here we have the first principle common to business and politics—demand and supply The people do not want much nor do they want that little long but any real requirement of theirs is a demand which it pays to supply The Romans could be kept quiet by amusements so the emperors provided the circus The French long for "la gloire" and the man who can furnish glory can become almost anything in France Americans yet fundamentally only for freedom—freedom from bother responsibility and excitement. They want to be left alone to attend to their own business They are not willing always to let other people alone The Anglo-Saxon is inclined to regulate the conduct of others, and sometimes the tendency to do so is a real public demand No matter what it is however if the people want it enough the politician like the business man, knows that he must supply it or suffer some competitor to take it up and make capital of it The national Republican party was established to supply a demand which the other national parties of the day would not trade on In a small way, the temperance parties of the middle west and the thrifty socialist parties of the eastern manufacturering neighborhoods are examples of the neglect of the regular politicians—deliberate in these cases In the larger cities the demand for good government has been regarded as what the business man would call a long felt want and since the machines would not provide it independent organizations have been formed to market the commodity These have failed partly because they were unprofessionally managed partly because the demand is limited Reform seems to the politician who is an expert in a way to appeal only to what commercially is known as a fad or narrow market.

No trait of the politician is more business like than his respect for the market, the popular demand but with this as a corollary goes his contempt for the passing fancies of the few The few are the reformers and their complainings have a use that is strictly political, they tend to create a demand for new things But the regular politician won't offer the cotton gin to the farmers of the north nor a self-adjusting plough to the brokers in Wall street that play melodrama to the Bowery and even in Broadway they would not try literature You can make yourself famous by preparing a fine scented soap—yes verily an odorless soap—for the few but you cannot do it by offering abstract good government to the masses A politician being a business man is not doing anything for the sake of bettering men or government. He gives us only what we want the majority of us for his market is very broad and though he will promise anything he sells as little as possible for the money The mistake of the reformer who sets out with amateurish notions and proceeds upon uncommercial methods is that they not only offer to the majority what the minority alone asks for but actually give more than the few want (J Lincoln Steffens in Ainslee's

The New Sea Ports of America

"The Great Need of Our Lake Commerce is a Deep Water Way to the Sea" is an important subject which the Magazine Success has dealt with in a notable manner in its October issue. The article was written by Major Johnson of Cleveland Mayor Harrison of Chicago Mayor Jones of Toledo and Mayor Hugo of Duluth Three routes are advocated, and the cost of construction distances and feasibility of these routes are accurately given. The route which Success presents as being the shortest and most advisable is by the St. Georgian bay and the Ontario river thence by the St. Lawrence and a canal into Lake Champlain and then through the Champlain canal and Hudson river to the sea By this route New York city could retain its supremacy as the commercial center of the continent The opinions of the four mayors on the project are interesting

Mayor Johnson says It would seem that the United States with its extensive coast lines on the Atlantic and the Pacific could find locations for a sufficient number of seaports to accommodate its increasing trade But this is not so The principal cities of the great lakes are looking forward to [illegible] their vessels to all parts of the world Cleveland does not intend to be backward in this matter She stands ready to grasp fortune and time by their forelocks and to promote such projects as will point to a successful waterway to the Atlantic Such a route is becoming more and more a necessity every day The vastness of the commerce of the middle western states proclaims that they must have their own road to the sea

Mayor Hugo says No enterprise could be inaugurated by the United States government with the same amount of money which would more redound to the success and the emolument of its citizens than this much mooted [illegible] system of canals to connect the lakes with the ocean Either the Canadian government will improve the St Lawrence river route and share with us in the benefits or the United States will adopt a plan and keep within its own borders a prize so rich in promise and so advantageous to its own millions of people

Mayor Harrison says The trial trip of the Northwestern Steamship company's liner the Northwestern has demonstrated the practicability of the new connection and is certain to lead to immediate and enormous developments The success of the enterprise will result in lower freight rates between Chicago and the various ports of Europe on certain commodities Practically will the butter and cheese export trade be stimulated as trial shipments of these articles notwithstanding the delays incident to the first trip have been delivered on the other side [illegible] condition

Mayor Jones says This saying would largely benefit farmers The price of grain at any lake port is the price in Europe less the transportation charges Reduce the latter and the farm product is enhanced by so much Make seaports of the lake cities and you reduce freights not only to Europe but also to our Atlantic ports for water transportation is cheaper than by rail and it is a well understood fact that the cheapest mode of transportation is the basis of the freight rates by other methods or routes A practicable waterway from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic would compel a reduction of rail freight rates between the Atlantic and the west

RECEPTION TO ODD FELLOWS

Successful End of the First Day of the Order's Celebration in This City—Parade Today.

One thousand brass buttoned bebadged blue uniformed men and a larger half that many women every one of them wearing from one to four different badges of varied hue, filled Odd Fellows hall last night. The hall was not only filled but as many as could crowd in stood up in the aisles and hallways.

The occasion was the reception by local lodges to the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs who have come to Colorado Springs to participate in the grand lodge and grand encampment meetings, Rebekah assembly and ... of the Patriarchs Militant. The assembly held its first meeting of the four days and in the afternoon the grand encampment convened.

There were just as many people in the hall last night as could possibly squeeze in. In spite of the discomforts of standing up and having people trample on each other's toes it was a merry jovial light hearted crowd. Every speaker was applauded and those in the back of the hall and out in the anterooms who could not hear the words of the speakers caught up the refrain of the applauding enthusiasm and added to the good cheer that animated the entire assembly.

A program of speaking and music preceded the informal part of the evening. The hall has just been renovated and newly painted and frescoed for this occasion. The walls were covered with bunting in colors significant of the different branches of the organization. On one side of the large hall were red and blue festoons and on the other were pink and green. A sun burst effect of purple and yellow decorated the ceiling. Palms and other shrubbery were set about the platform. The military attire of the Patriarchs order gave the assembly an appearance of picturesqueness.

Grand Master H C McCreery presided at the evening session. Mayor J R Robinson gave the address of welcome in which he emphasized the beneficial effects of such an organization as the Odd Fellows. The loyalty friendship and sincerity which prevails among fraternal organizations such as the Odd Fellows said the mayor had a most salutary effect on the community. Hon Frank Goudy past grand master was on the program for a response to the address of welcome but on account of the pressure of business was unable to be present. J M Norman the newly elected grand secretary addressed the assembly in place of Mr Goudy. T G Horn past grand master spoke of the Good of the Order in which he was frequently interrupted by applause. The speech was a splendid plea for fraternal union and accord.

In the afternoon, the Rebekah assembly and the grand encampment held their annual meetings. At the encampment the reports of the officers, showing the financial and social conditions and progress of the order were read. The progress and growth of the lodge during the past year has been most satisfactory and indicates the prosperous condition and good repute that the Odd Fellows enjoy. There have been three new lodges established ... and although the official report of the subordinate lodge will not be in until today the increase in membership has been even greater.

The election of officers and their installation was the first thing done in the afternoon. ... Dana was elected grand representative to the Sovereign Grand lodge which convenes in Des Moines next September. John Weldman of Fort Collins was elected grand patriarch to succeed Mr Dana. The other officers elected yesterday were F. E. Butler of Denver grand senior warden, Richard Hughes of Fremont grand junior warden, John Lattimer of Gunnison grand high priest, J M Norman of Denver grand secretary and Conrad Shafer of Greeley grand treasurer. The installation of officers took place immediately after their election and occupied all of the afternoon.

The visitors began to arrive Sunday afternoon and by last night nearly all of the names of the delegates were on the official register. The early part of the day was given over to receiving the delegates and assigning them to their rooms. The hotels of the city are entertaining most of them but no small number is being entertained at the homes of the fraternal associates. The Rebekah assembly held a session at 10 o'clock yesterday but nothing was done at the meeting but an informal receiving of the delegates.

Today is the great banner day of the four day session when the public may share in the picturesque part of the organization. All of the visitors and the local lodges from Colorado City, Manitou and Colorado Springs will march in a parade. The spectacle will certainly be of uncommon public interest and will be worth seeing. It will form at 1 o'clock. John L Nelson will be grand marshal and C H Wallace and Del Paddock aides. The line of march will be as follows:

East on Pike's Peak to Tejon, south on Tejon to Vermijo, east on Vermijo to Nevada, north on Nevada to Pike's Peak, west on Pike's Peak to Tejon, north on Tejon to Platte, east on Platte to Nevada, south on Nevada to grand stand (Stratton block) where parade will be dismissed and followed immediately by competitive drill. Seats on east side of grounds free of charge for use of citizens, seats on west side of grounds reserved for Odd Fellows.

The parade will line up at the old horse show grounds where the competitive drill of the Patriarchs will take place. There is considerable good natured rivalry manifested by all the lodges over the outcome of the drill and competition is very keen. The prizes are all in money but this is the least for which the different lodges are striving. In the evening the grand state ball will take place at Temple theater. Preceding the ball the grand decoration of chivalry will be conferred on L. C. Dana. This also will take place at the Temple theater.

Today's program is as follows:

9 a. m. Grand lodge convenes in Odd Fellows hall.

10 a. m.—Rebekah assembly meets in K. P. hall, De Graff building.

1 p. m. Grand parade, John L. Nelson grand marshal, C. H. Wallace, and Del Paddock, aides.

2 p. m. Competitive drill by cantons for grand prizes, Stratton block, corner Nevada and Pike's Peak avenues.

4 p. m.—Regimental dress parade and distribution of prizes at same place.

8 p. m.—Grand decoration of chivalry on Colonel L. C. Dana at Temple theater.

9 p. m.—Grand ball at Temple theater.

Quinlan Presents Bill for Damages

C P Quinlan yesterday presented to the county commissioners a bill for damages amounting to $1,700 for alleged breach of contract on the part of the commissioners. Mr Quinlan says the old fusion board made a contract with him which the new Republican board refused to carry out.

Mr Quinlan states that the fusion board passed a resolution granting him a contract for $2,500 to make abstracts of titles to all property in El Paso county for the purpose of revising the unknown title books and eliminating from the lists as far as possible, properties which are registered as not having recorded titles. Soon after the contract was awarded Mr Quinlan says, the Republicans gained a majority in the board and refused to carry out the contract. Instead they employed two men to do the work for which Mr Quinlan alleges he was given the contract. He thinks he has been damaged to the amount of $1,700.

C. L. EAGLE CONVICTED OF WIFE BEATING AND FINED

His Wife and Neighbors Testified to His Ill Treatment of Her—Pathetic Scene in Court

C. L. Eagle who was arrested a week ago Sunday at his home after he had brutally beaten his wife was convicted of assault and battery by a jury in Justice McClelland's court yesterday. The story told by Mrs. Eagle and her neighbors won the sympathy of those who crowded the court room.

The prisoner and his aged mother who was also arrested for ill treatment of her daughter-in-law, sat together at one side of the court room, the mother with her back turned to the younger Mrs. Eagle. Eagle never looked at his wife who held her youngest child, a babe, in her arms. Mrs. Eagle was still weak from the effects of the assault.

The story of the beating which Mrs. Eagle said was not the only one she had received was told by her and the neighbors. Mrs. Eagle said her husband struck her and knocked her down. She also said that her mother in law had been cruel to her but the charge against the old woman was dismissed. The jury found the husband guilty and Justice McClelland fined him $50. The prisoner was released under bail until today, when the fine will probably be paid.

Eagle is awaiting trial on the charge of non-support.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT IN POLICE COURT

Al Volkman was fined $10 in police court for contempt of court.

Volkman was driving on Kiowa street on the wrong side of the street about noon yesterday. Judge Boatright saw him and told him to get over on the other side. He did not do so and the judge warned him again. Volkman told the judge he had no right to give him orders. The judge then showed his star and ordered Volkman up into court last evening. Volkman did not show up at the specified time and the judge was about to order an officer to go after him when he at last appeared. He was fined $1 and costs for driving on the wrong side of the street and $10 for not complying with the order to appear in court at a certain time. The $1 fine was suspended but the contempt fine was enforced against him.

Mrs. Burkholder of 515 North Weber street thought she had lost two diamond rings yesterday and reported the same to the police. Later she found the rings and reported that fact to the police and Officer Dayton who was working on the case, was notified to stop hunting for the rings.

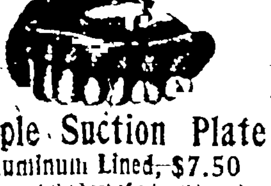

A couple of disturbance cases and one or two drunks required Judge Boatright's attention yesterday morning. Fines were imposed on all the offenders. A prisoner charged with unlawful cohabitation was also tried but was discharged.

Y M C A AUXILIARY—The woman's auxiliary to the Y M C A will hold a meeting this afternoon at 2:30 at the association rooms on Bijou street. The meeting is for the purpose of organizing the auxiliary. The functions of this department of the Y M C A will be advisory. It will also have charge of the social features of the meetings.

PORTLAND PRODUCTION

Output for Current Month Will Approximate 10,000 Tons---Mountain Monarch Claim Jumped---Shipments From the Columbia.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Oct. 14.—If nothing unexpected happens, the Portland company will figure its output 10,000 tons, or better, of ore during the month of October. The company has extended its 1,100-foot level for a short distance, enough to open one of the numerous ore bodies on the property, and finds better values and a wider body of ore than has been found in the upper level of this same shoot. While the higher grade ore in the bottom level does not materially affect the average grade of the regular output, a larger amount of mineral is broken, accounting for the increase in the production. The company is keeping development work far ahead of production, and is increasing the rate of the latter in a way that is very beneficial both to the company and to the camp. The other large mines are following the suit of the Portland, in increasing their output with the result that the production for the current year will run far ahead of that of last year.

R. P. Russell, who has a lease on the Mountain Monarch claim of the Roxanna company, owned by D. H. Moffatt and Eben Smith, reports that the claim has been jumped by J. K. McClurg of Anaconda. Just what work has been done by McClurg he is not able to state, but he feels confident that the location was untimbered by the corner-stakes, will hold good in any event. He is not much worried over the re-location of the claim, but believes the reason for jumping it to be the same as that in the case of the Pharmacist, where an alleged error was made in issuing the patent. The Mountain Monarch adjoins the Doctor-Jack Pot Consolidated on Raven hill, and is a very valuable piece of property. At the time of the consolidation of the Doctor-Jack Pot interests, an attempt was made to include the Roxanna company's property in the deal, but a satisfactory basis could not be had. The property has been idle for some time although McClurg has recently applied for a sub-lease on it.

Lessee Boyd and associates have commenced work on a new lease on the east end of the Wilson claim of the Free Coinage company, at Altman. Work is to be carried on in two shafts, 50 and 325 feet in depth, the latter one having a 100-foot showing of shipping ore at the bottom. The lessees will begin shipping immediately, and will also carry on some extensive development work.

The Solitaire Leasing company operating the Columbia claim of the El Paso Consolidated company, on Bennett hill, is shipping an average of 60 tons of ore per week, the mineral averaging about three ounces of gold to the ton. There is a nice showing in the bottom level of the property, and enough ore is blocked out to keep the force of ore sorters busy until the lease expires next March.

CHANGES ON THE EXCHANGE

Thirty-Day Trading Expired Yesterday and the Unclassified List Sings Its Swan Song Today.

Two important changes go into effect on change the first of this week. One went into effect yesterday, the abolition of "30-day trading," and the other, the abolition of the unclassified department, takes place today. Both are of considerable moment, and it is thought that the revolution in denying all future trades above the 5-day limit will mean greater prosperity for the exchange. The action has met with almost the unanimous approval of the members of the exchange. Even those who thought that the system was of no harm express themselves as satisfied at its abolition, thinking that it may inspire greater confidence in the methods of the association.

The unclassified list contained at its demise a group of stocks of uncertain merit, a class of securities which the exchange now refuses to recognize in any way. When the stocks next appear on the boards it will be in the bright light of investigation when all their inmost characteristics are laid bare. This attitude of the exchange, vouching for all of the stocks which are admitted to its lists, will make the public feel perfectly safe in its dealings in the stocks on the exchange.

RANDLE CANNOT TRANSFER HIS SEAT

Owing to His Suspension From the Exchange G. T. Graham Will Not Be Allowed to Represent Him on the Floor.

The listing committee of the Colorado Springs Mining Stock exchange met yesterday morning to act upon the application for membership made by G. Thomas Graham. A notice has been posted on the exchange bulletin board for some days advertising the fact that the seat of Peyton Randle had been transferred to G. Thomas Graham.

The membership committee, however, refused to permit the transfer because it was thought Graham would merely represent Randle's interests on the floor, and as Randle had been barred from all privileges of the exchange, the denial, it was decided, must be actual as well as nominal.

Notice of Randle's suspension was posted on the bulletin board yesterday. The action was taken by the governing committee last Saturday after two protracted sessions had been held to consider charges which had been brought. The charges were brought by the firm of Tucker, Ballard & Co. of this city, and were to the effect that Randle had surreptitiously appropriated their list of clients to use for starting up business by himself. Randle's confession to the offense was obtained, and the only bar to a complete expulsion from the exchange was the fact that he was not a member at the time the offense was committed. It was taken into consideration, however, that since his admission he has been transacting business with the names of clients belonging to other members of the exchange, and the maximum penalty for injuring the business of the exchange was imposed, namely, a suspension for one year.

Inquiry was made yesterday of Tucker, Ballard & Co. in regard to the case, but they refused to be quoted in the matter. "We would prefer," said a member of the firm, "that nothing whatever be published in regard to the affair."

MORNING STAR ANNUAL MEETING

H. H. Barbee Has Been Elected President and the Consolidation Will Probably Go Through.

The annual meeting of the Morning Star Gold Mining company was held yesterday afternoon in the offices of Messrs. Partridge and Storer, at which the control passed out of the hands of that office to Messrs. Barbee, Bartlett and others. There was a large representation of the stock at the meeting and the following directors were chosen to serve the company for the ensuing year: H. H. Barbee, S. R. Bartlett, F. L. Ballard, J. D. Ford and Fred Day. It was reported that Bernard and Ford had bought the control of the company in order to effect a merger with the Morning Star company's Beacon hill ground and the El Paso group, but this is not only unlikely from the personnel of the directorate, but it is denied by Mr. Bernard of the El Paso who states that the change of the control has no significance in relation to that company.

At a meeting held subsequently to the [illegible] Half Barbee was elected president, S. R. Bartlett, vice president, and F. L. Ballard, secretary and treasurer.

The change of control it is thought will make it more simple a matter to effect the consolidation between the Morning Star's claim on Beacon hill, and the Beacon-Hill Ajax company which has been pending for some time. The fact that Mr. Barbee, who is a director of the Beacon-Hill Ajax company, and who has been foremost in the negotiations to effect a consolidation, is made president of the Morning Star company is taken to mean that the consolidation will soon go through. It will be to the advantage of both companies, enabling their ground to be developed on a large scale, and the extent of their combined territory will be certain to cover the extension of the Mary McKinney vein.

The change in the control yesterday was due to the very active trading which has taken place in the shares during the past few weeks. Several hundred thousand shares were exchanged altogether, and the price has advanced from 2½ to 6 cents.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

Notice was posted on the bulletin board of the mining exchange yesterday that A. L. Ducey had been suspended from membership on account of non-payment of dues.

STRATTON GRANTS LEASE ON MARTHA WASHINGTON CLAIM.

Mr. W. S. Stratton has recently granted a lease on the Martha Washington [illegible] belonging to the Stratton group on Battle mountain. While no work has been done on this property for a long while and there has never been much done yet it was on this very ground, it is claimed, that Mr. Stratton first found gold ore in the great Cripple Creek district. Lessees Sharp and Lambert were the parties to whom the lease was granted. These two miners are well known operators in the district. They will commence work in an old shaft which they are now retimbering. By the terms of the lease they can not sink the shaft below the depth of 400 feet, but, however, to thoroughly prospect the ground they will run drifts and crosscuts before the shaft shall reach that depth. Already in the old workings a vein is opened up that is two feet in width and assays have been obtained from the rock that have run as high as $30 to the ton in gold. This property is about 600 feet south of the main workings of the Independence and the location is considered even more desirable than the Independence property.

LESSEE ON PHARMACIST SHIPS TWO CAR LOADS.

Two carloads of ore have been shipped out by Lessee McDade, who is operating a lease on a block of ground north of the Jones shaft on the Pharmacist property. The consignment consisted of one carload of screenings estimated to be worth something above $40 in gold to the ton, and the other carload of ore valued at $30 a ton.

It is on this very property that a new claim has been located by one Elliott, who claims that this property is still open and is subject to location under the laws of the United States. The mining fraternity in the district is much divided upon this question—some holding that Elliott's location will hold good while the other side is of the opinion that the claim will not hold good because the Pharmacist company has been in peaceful possession for some eight or ten years. This is answered by the fact that the statutes of limitations never run against the government.

LESSEE STRIKES IT RICH ON C. O. D. OF REBECCA CO.

The Rebecca Gold Mining company which is controlled by French capitalists, has recently leased its C. O. D. claim in Poverty gulch to Lessee Jack O'Donnell, a well-known operator in the Cripple Creek district. This property has been idle for some two years or more. O'Donnell has begun operations in the main workings on this claim and at the depth of about 400 feet has opened up two feet of ore that shows sylvanite in abundance, and the assays indicate values of about $200 in gold to the ton. It was only a few weeks ago that the directors of Rebecca company decided to lease the property of the company on the block system. Pay ore has been opened up in the old inclined shaft by Sindlinger and his associates and now this find in the main workings show the lessees are more successful on operating developments on the claim than the owners of the property.

MUCH ACTIVITY CAUSED BY STRIKE ON BEACON HILL.

The recent strikes on Beacon hill have encouraged owners to activity, and a number of claims that have been lying idle for years are being prospected. Good reports are also heard from the Prince Albert property. Dunham & Smith, who purchased the Head lease at what at the time was considered a steep figure, have a large quantity of ore blocked out and will soon commence daily shipments.

Returns of a 10-ton trial shipment from the Moore lease on the Flying Cloud were received yesterday. The ore which was found in an old stope while cutting through to surface for air connection, averages a little better than an ounce to the ton. There is a quantity of similar ore in the mine which will now be marketed.

The Daly lease on the Mitchell of the Pinnacle company, has been purchased by Thompson and associates of this city. Miners started work this morning.

WOODS INVESTMENT CO. WILL WASH DUMPS.

In order to make a still more economical saving of the production from the many enterprises under the supervision of the Woods Investment company, steam-driven rotaries of a large capacity will be installed on the dumps of the various mines that this company is operating for the purpose of washing their dumps. All the ore will be carefully screened before it is allowed to be washed. These washers will first be installed on the Wild Horse and it is expected that from $75,000 to $1,000,000 will be added to the gross earnings of the mine.

This plan that is going to be put in operation by the Woods people is an economical one and as yet it is in little use in the district. The dump of the Stratton's Independence is being washed under lease for some past with very profitable results.

WORKINGS OF VARIOUS LESSEES OVER CAMP.

The Solitaire company, leasing on the Columbia, owned by the El Paso Consolidated Mining & Milling company, is making steady shipments from its lease. Last month close to 200 tons of ore were sent out of an average value of $60 a ton.

The Grand Rapids Mining & Leasing company, operating on the Shurtliff on Bull hill, have cut a vein 50 feet west of the shaft at a depth of about 500 feet. It carries will mineralized ore which upon roasting shows free gold.

Wooster & Co., lessees on the Matoon of the Dante, on Bull hill, have opened a vein south of the shaft at a depth of 85 feet. The vein is about four feet wide and carried pay values.

Charles Crowder and others, leasing the Maid of Orleans on Beacon hill, have started a new shaft and are down about 60 feet. They will go a depth of 200 feet and then crosscut. The lessees expect to reach some of the ore shoots in the Columbia property.

Mitchell and others, leasing on the main workings have reached the 700-foot point and will commence cutting out the station tomorrow.

The Tecumseh claim, which lies due south of the Jolly Tar, owned by the Sam Strong estate, and south of the famous Strong mine, is now the scene of active operation. The property is owned by the Jolly Jane company. The shaft now 100 feet deep, is to be put down to the 500-foot point.

GOULD COMPANY GRANTS LEASE ON KITTY LANE.

The directors of the Gould Mining company have recently granted an 18 months' lease on the Kitty Lane claim belonging to this company. Lessees Whipp and Glenn were the operators to whom the lease was given. Probably these two miners are about the best known lessees in the district. These operators have promised to put an air compressor plant and to use drills in developing the property.

DONALDSON MOUNTAIN CO. IS INSTALLING MACHINERY.

The Donaldson Mountain Mining company whose property is located in Clear Creek county, near Idaho Springs and controlled by mining men is installing a plant of machinery at the mouth of the tunnel on the property which is now being driven under Donaldson mountain. This tunnel will afford great facility for operating the property for it will cut the ground at the depth of 500 feet. The tunnel is already in 150 feet. A shaft house has been erected. It is the present intention of the management of the company to drive the tunnel 2,000 feet through the property belonging to the company. Mr. Albert Wright, who is heavily interested in this company, visited the property recently and states that matters are progressing very nicely and the developments are showing well.

All things considered, it is a remarkable journalistic achievement. It should be read and preserved as a complete [illegible] of a great historical event.

200,000 SHARES OF STOCK

OF

The Vacas-San Marcos Mining and Milling Co.

ARE ON THE MARKET AT $1.00 A SHARE

The Vacas-San Marcos Company is organized under the laws of the State of Colorado and the Republic of Mexico, with 3,000,000 Shares at $1.00 per Share.

The Company owns acres of rich mineral land, sixty miles from the City of Durango, State of Durango, Mexico.

One Million Shares of Stock will be left in the Treasury, for future sales, at higher prices.

The Mill now working the Vacas Mine, in which there is over Six Million Dollars Worth of Ores in sight, is now concentrating 1,800 tons a month, that brings $33,000, at an expense of $12,000.

November 1, 1901, one enlargement of the mill will be started up, and 2,800 tons a month will be treated and a higher percentage of values saved, producing at least $45,000 a month, at an expense of $16,000.

By the 1st of February, 1902, another enlargement of milling facilities will be completed, enabling 300 tons of ore to be mined and treated per day, which will produce $100,000 a month, at an expense of not more than $25,000.

The money realized from the sale of this stock will be used in completing the milling plant now building, in erecting machinery on, and developing other mines of the group, that have millions of dollars worth of ore in sight.

Nearly all the machinery for the new, 300-Ton Mill is on the ground and in transit, and a large force of men employed in construction.

This is one of the most famous properties of Mexico, having produced many million dollars, and will produce at least $50,000,000 more.

I have succeeded in settling all litigation over the property, that has been going on for years, and organized the company.

Beginning in January, 1902, at least 1 per cent. per month dividends on the investment of one dollar per share will be paid. The value of the stock, and the dividends, will more than double, soon after the completion of the proposed milling and mining facilities.

The chance to buy this stock at this price will last but a short time.

Orders for stock should be sent by letter, wire or 'phone. Reports, references and Prospectus shown or sent on application.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Oct. 14.—The mining stock market today did not present any especial features. The absence of all-day trading made the trading appear somewhat light, or at least the trading appeared light, whatever the cause. The strongest stock on the lists was El Paso which advanced to 67½ [illegible] very good trading, and Doctor manifested good strength going to 55½. The trading in the mines list was very inactive and the preferred list presented much less activity than usual, and no especial strength was developed outside of Calera, which sold strong at 27, 600 shares being exchanged at this price. Gold Dollar was active and closed firm at 15¼, but Dante remained weak at 4½ and C. C. Cons. sold at 7½. Acacia declined to 15⅝, and Morning Star was weak at 4¾. The stress of gaining the control having passed off, there was no longer any demand for the shares. Little Bessie was firm at 4¾. The showing on this property is understood to be very good.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press.

New York, Oct. 14.—Efforts by large speculative interests to sustain and advance the stock market continued in evidence today. They succeeded in overcoming the early weakness, but as the level of price rose over that of Saturday, their following decreased and the advance lost its force. It was not aggressive at any time and was restricted to a few stocks, notably St. Paul and the Pacifics. The elimination of a large proportion of the short interest as a result of the advance late last week deprived the market of an advance at this time would have to depend on the efforts of the larger financial powers. These elements were supposed last week to have embarked on a campaign for the advance owing to inside information of plans to settle the Northern Pacific tangle, but apparently last week's reports on that subject were either not well founded or premature. The suspicion has gained force that the circulation of those reports was a manipulative measure against the shorts, or was designed to test the possible effect upon speculation of the actual announcement of some such measure. The perception emerges that measures to finance the Northern Pacific settlement are the great object to be attained at present rather than large ulterior projects of additional consolidations. The prevalent rumor of an assignment by the financial powers of the control of St. Paul to Union Pacific as compensation for a relinquishment of the control of Northern Pacific to the Morgan-Hill interests does not find great credence. Such a settlement would not provide for the neutralization of the Burlington system as a competitor of Union Pacific, which was the vital contention of Union Pacific throughout the quarrel. Nevertheless St. Paul showed itself the most sensitive stock in the market today, falling early in the day to 1½ below Saturday and rising later to 2¼ above. The rest of the market followed the movement in St. Paul, though over a lesser range throughout. In spite of favorable interpretations of Saturday's bank statement there is some uneasiness persisting in the safety of the money market for the rest of the season. The seemingly acute demand for funds at Paris awakens considerable surmise as to the extent of the demands to be satisfied at that center. The prevailing ease of money in London is dependent upon the large amounts of French capital loaned in that market and heavy withdrawals from London may have serious effects. The whole tone of foreign markets continues much depressed. At the same time it is to be noted that the rise in sterling exchange here has been checked. Today's action by the Bank of England in advancing the price of American eagles even indicates some apprehension of a future demand for gold from New York. Should the demand for sterling exchange for purpose of repayment of foreign borrowings come to an end and the belated movement of cotton quickly grow, there can be little doubt that exchange would fall to the gold import point almost at once. The notable decline in the movement of grain over the railroads exercised some depressing influence on the market. The closing was unsteady but at top prices, for a number of stocks.

There was a decrease in the demand for railroad bonds and the movement of prices was irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,000,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

STORIES OF THE STREET

Colorado Springs People Are Talking About It on Every Corner.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out; and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. Skepticism is allowable when reading in a home newspaper about some incident occurring in San Francisco or Iowa, but the circumstances are entirely different when it refers to someone right here at home, friends and neighbors, people you know, whom you can see and with whom you talk it over. This is the kind of evidence at the back of Doan's Kidney Pills home statements by home people, and the astonishing local work they have been doing has caused more talk among our citizens than the doings of any other modern wonder. Read the following:

Mrs. H. C. Hughes, corner of Cascade and Vermijo streets, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me amazingly and I know they are a reliable remedy for the kidneys. I caught a cold, which settled in the small of my back and in the kidneys and caused me so much pain I was quite miserable. Reading an advertisement in our paper about Doan's Kidney Pills, I sent my son to Jones & Wellington's drug store, 103 N. Tejon street, for a box. The treatment relieved me almost at once and up to date there has been no recurrence of the symptoms."

For sale by all dealers; price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

THE NEWS OF COLORADO CITY

GAZETTE'S BRANCH OFFICE:
M. K. Rankin's Coal office, 513 Colorado Avenue.

Kittie Schueler's Hearing Today

Mrs. Kittie Schueler who took four shots at her husband in Coby's saloon in this city some weeks ago, is now under arrest on a charge of assault with intent to kill. The warrant for her arrest was sworn out by Jacob Schueler, her father-in-law. Yesterday in Justice Faulkner's court and she will be given a preliminary hearing this morning.

Schueler is now on the road to rapid recovery and is out of danger from the effects of the bullet wounds. The young wife has been held in the city jail over here awaiting action by her husband. Schueler intended to have her discharged as he had forgiven the attack on his life but the district attorney's office persuaded his father to swear out the warrant as Mrs. Schueler has frequently threatened her husband's life, it is said.

It is expected that Mrs. Schueler will waive examination today and will be remanded to the county jail to await trial in the district court.

Mrs. Schueler shot her husband in Coby's saloon about three weeks ago. Her husband was playing cards in there and had been there all the afternoon. She went in and tried to get him to go home, but he paid no attention to her. Then she went away but came back some time later with a revolver which she proceeded to empty at her husband. There were several other men in the room at the time, but she held them all at bay and succeeded in seriously wounding her husband after which she calmly walked out and went home. Mrs. Schueler was very jealous of her husband, it is said, and she states that he has been deceiving her for the past ...

POLITICS GETTING MUCH LIVELIER

Politics is increasing in liveliness here. Yesterday, both parties started in with carriages to finish up the work of registration. Eight political carriages, divided evenly between the Republican and Democratic parties, chased around the streets of Colorado City after negligent voters who were not registered. The books have only a few more days to remain open and every effort is being made to get the voters out.

The Democrats are pushing things over here. The rally on Saturday night was not the success anticipated and another one will be held in the same place on Wednesday night. The cold weather and lack of advertising are given as the reasons for the poor attendance on Saturday night. The Republicans have no meetings arranged as yet and may not hold any. The party workers are doing their work quietly but effectively and are not allowing the Democrats any advantage that they can overcome.

SCHOOL BOARD TALKS OF NEW BUILDINGS

The school board held a special meeting last night for the purpose of authorizing the payment of the last installment on the Whittier school building. The payment was authorized and the warrants will be issued soon.

The board also discussed the need for further room. The discussion had bearing on next year rather than this, as it will be practically impossible to construct new buildings this year. A new building for the south side is under contemplation and will probably be favorably acted upon before the present year is over.

Women Who Are Led Astray by Mischievous Marsh Fires.

Illustrative of the baneful power of the marsh fire, there is told a story of a woman who lost her way. She turned in this direction and, in that, hopelessly puzzled as to her whereabouts in the murky light. Presently ahead of her she saw the gleam of a light. At once she saw in fancy the picture of home, the lamp in the window, the cozy comfort of those under the shelter of the protecting roof, curtained and closed and warm. Steadfastly she moved toward the light. But as she moved it seemed to change its position. It was already a little farther away from her and presently when she sank down exhausted in a swamp the light disappeared altogether.

Whatever truth there may be in the story, it forcibly illustrates the career of many a woman who has followed the marsh fire of love in the belief that it led to home and comfort, and found herself at last exhausted and deceived.

"IT'S A BITTER LESSON"

learned, by many a woman who thought love all-sufficient, that love alone cannot be the foundation of the home. It needs health. Strange as it may seem the beautiful loving woman who is weak may lose the love of the husband for whom she broke all home ties, while on the other hand a woman who has no greater dower than robust health may win and hold the love of her husband past all possibility of loss. The first requisite of marriage is health. The wife's first necessity is health. Health must be the mother's or she will know no happiness in her children. What makes ill-health so common among women? Why do they suffer with headache, backache and pains past all description? These sufferings are in general caused by disease of the delicate womanly organs, and they are in general curable by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"I take great pleasure in writing you what great benefit your 'Favorite Prescription,' 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' have done me," says Mrs. P. A. Graham of 617 Race street, New Orleans, La. "I have been a constant sufferer for the last eight years with female weakness, nervous and general debility, trying everything I could find to help me, but to no avail. Have been treated by several country physicians, and also had some of the best city physicians prescribe for me. They all said my case was incurable and was a chronic disease of long standing, but, thanks to God and your great medicine, I have found relief at last, and soon will be cured sound and well again. I have taken three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I can't describe in words how much benefit I have received from them. I think your medicine is the best in the world for female diseases and for the blood. I think 'Favorite Prescription' is the best medicine made for women. I feel safe in recommending Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to any one suffering from the effect of impure blood and his 'Favorite Prescription' for female weakness."

"THE LAST SHALL BE FIRST."

How many times that saying is illustrated by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the last thing which is tried and the first to help. It's often the last resort of hopeless women and the first medicine to claim their gratitude for an absolute emancipation from the thraldom of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong, sick women well. It establishes womanly regularity, stops enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I suffered for six years from ovarian trouble," writes Mrs. E. Waite, of (Lake View Postoffice), Chicago, Ill. "Sometimes I could hardly walk, and when I had to cough it felt as though a knife was cutting me. My hands and feet were cold all the time. I had such a tired feeling and such a poor appetite and when I went to bed I slept only about two hours at a time. A friend advised me to use Dr. Pierce's medicines, for they had helped her, so I got a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and by the time I had used two bottles I felt so much better that I continued until I had taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and now I am so well that my friends remark how well I am looking. I can go to bed now and sleep till morning. My appetite is splendid and all that tired feeling has left me. I hope others will do as I have done—just give Dr. Pierce's medicines a fair trial, and they will be sure to derive much benefit, as I have. I am so thankful to think I am so well."

WHAT WELL WOMEN SAY.

Here are a few brief statements culled from letters of women cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription:

"I feel like a different being and I look well."—(Mrs. Maggie Spelts, 410 Eighth street, Mount Vernon, Posey Co., Ind.

"When I think how I was five years ago and how I am now, I say, God bless Dr. Pierce's work for women. I have had no return of my weakness and am well and hearty."—(Mrs. Fred Kempson, Cambria, Hillsdale Co., Mich., Box 57.

"Two bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' made a new woman of me." —(Mrs. C. Nelson, Chemawa, Marion Co., Oregon.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is altogether free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

Do not allow the dealer to push off on you a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" claiming that it is "just as good." The record of its cures and the testimony of thousands of women prove that there is nothing "just as good" as "Favorite Prescription" for weak and sickly women.

Women suffering from disease in chronic form are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and womanly confidences set down in writing are guarded by the same scrupulous professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in personal consultation at the Invalids' hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

FROM THE ...SIDE LINES

The Colorado Springs High school football team is after big game. The football management of the High school is trying to arrange a game with the State School of Mines team, to be played in this city next Saturday afternoon. If this game is arranged it will draw a big crowd and local football enthusiasts are hoping that the Golden team will come down for a game. The Golden aggregation has not shown up to very great advantage against the East Denver, West Denver and Manual Training High schools, and if those games are anything to judge by, Golden would have a hard time keeping the local High school from defeating her.

The High school had a good practice yesterday. Principal Mason, who has been coaching the team, was assisted yesterday by Mr. Allen, who has been helping Ewing coach the college team. The High school has a better team at the present time than it had at the height of last season. Tomorrow afternoon the college team will line up against the scholastics for a practice game which will be of benefit to both aggregations.

The college football squad did not do much hard work yesterday. A number of the men were not out in suits but this is usually the case on Mondays, especially if a game has taken place the Saturday before. Ewing practiced the men on catching punts most of the time. He also gave Packard some practice on goals from the field from long distances. Packard put several balls across the bar from the 35 and 40-yard lines and if he keeps on practicing and gets into a little better form the college will be dangerous from the center of the field. Jonson will do all the place-kicking from the shorter distances (that is, from the 40-yard line in), but Packard will probably do the long-distance kicking, as he has a more powerful leg. With Packard holding the ball and Jonson kicking, the college has an accurate combination. When Packard kicks Jonson holds the ball. This combination is not as accurate as the other but it will be a dangerous thing for Boulder or Golden to give Packard too many tries inside the 35-yard line. Packard is punting in fine form this year. The kicking department of the college team will be stronger than ever.

The game scheduled between Colorado college and the State Normal school for next Saturday afternoon will not take place, as the Normal school is out of football so far as the intercollegiate league is concerned. The college has received word from Greeley that the Normals will not play any football games this year but will take up other lines of athletics more fully. Greeley never was particularly strong on football material but is more in the basket-ball class, as the girls outnumber the boys by several hundred.

The college team hopes to get a game with the Denver Manual Training High school for Saturday, but it is doubtful whether it can be arranged.

The athletic clubs of Denver seem to have difficulty in getting enthused over football this year. Both clubs are relying mainly upon their members for the men to make up the teams and the experiment does not seem to be proving a success. Coach Cavanaugh and Coach Wheeler are not very well satisfied with the work their men are doing and are not able to get enough out to make competition for the places on the team. The D. A. C. has most of last year's team back but they are not doing much. The Wheel club has a good showing of material, what there is of it, but Wheeler has not many men to line up against his aggregation. The interest in Denver seems to center in the D. A. C.-Washburn college game. Washburn college of Topeka, Kas., always has a strong aggregation, although reports from there received in this city would indicate that the team is not as strong as usual this year. Washburn meets both the D. A. C. and D. W. C. and it is said has all sorts of money to bet on two victories. The talk of $200 having been sent to Denver to be placed on the D. A. C.-Washburn game is probably hot air, but Washburn will doubtless have plenty of money up before the game takes place.

Washburn gave Colorado college a hard beating last year and is anxious to repeat the trick this year. So far as reported no steps toward a game in this city this year have been taken by the college authorities and it is doubtful if the Kansas boys will be here.

COACHING

AUTUMN SPORT FOR TALLY-HO PARTIES.

Colonel Hughes, of Denver, and Chester A. Arthur, of this City Find the Road Perfect Between Here and Denver.

The perfect autumn weather finds the country roads appreciated as they never have been before and driving and riding and all kinds of outdoor athletics are indulged in as long as the daylight lasts.

Colonel William E. Hughes of Denver, drove his coach and four back to Denver yesterday after spending Saturday and Sunday as the guest of Miss Everhart. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Whitney of Denver accompanied Colonel Hughes on the drive up and returning. They drove to the country club on Sunday where the hospitality of the club was enjoyed by a number of friends that had been invited there to meet the Denver party.

Chester A. Arthur, Mrs. Arthur, D. G. C. MacNeill and E. H. Every drove to Denver Saturday morning, stopping at Colonel Hughes' country house at Perry Park en route. They left there shortly before twelve and arrived in Denver in time for early dinner at the Brown Palace. They will start on the return trip today.

This is the first time that the roads between Denver and this city have been tested on a coaching trip and the results have been so satisfactory that it is likely to become a fad among those who have coaches. The roads are now in perfect condition, the weather is ideal, and anything more delightful than such a trip is difficult to imagine. While neither Colonel Hughes nor Mr. Arthur made any attempt at a record, there is some talk of making coaching a sport that may result in considerable spirited competition.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF COLORADO SPRINGS:

Section 1. That bonds for the principal sum of Sixty-nine Thousand Dollars ($69,000.00) be issued in the name of said City of Colorado Springs in such denomination as the City Council may determine, for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of certain real estate and the waters and water-rights connected therewith, comprising what is commonly known as the Seven Lakes site and system, said real estate, waters and water-rights to be purchased for the purpose of increasing the water supply of the City of Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Section 2. That said bonds shall state on the face thereof the title of this ordinance and the title of the general statute of Colorado in pursuance of which the same are issued, and the corporate seal of the City shall be affixed thereto and they shall be signed by the Mayor and attested by the City Clerk.

Section 3. The said bonds shall be dated November 1st, 1901, and shall mature and the principal thereof become due and payable at the expiration of fifteen (15) years from the date thereof; that the interest thereon shall be four (4) per centum per annum; and it shall be payable semi-annually, and both principal and interest shall be payable when due in gold coin of the United States at the office of the Treasurer of the City of Colorado Springs or at the Chemical National Bank in New York City, at the option of the legal holders of said bonds; provided that said bonds, or any part thereof, shall be redeemable at par at the option of the City Council of the City of Colorado Springs at any time after ten (10) years from date of issue.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the City Council, annually, at the time and in the manner fixed by law for levying other City taxes, to levy a special tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds; that it shall also be the duty of said Council in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven and annually thereafter, to levy an additional special tax for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the payment of the principal of said bonds at maturity, which tax shall be sufficient to secure amounts for the respective years previous to the maturity of said bonds, as follows, to-wit: The year 1911, $12,800; the year 1912, $12,800; the year 1913, $13,800; the year 1914, $17,800; and the year 1915, $13,800. If there is one thing more than another that Colorado Springs can boast of, it is the quality of its mercantile establishments and the enterprise of its merchants. Most prominent among them is "Kaufman's." This progressive firm will celebrate on Wednesday, the fifth anniversary of their existence in this city, and it is due them, to say here, that since their advent, they have revolutionized the local dry goods, clothing, shoe and housefurnishing goods trade. With methods and merchandise that would do credit to a metropolitan city, with courteous treatment to all, they have earned and enjoyed the fullest confidence of the community, and if past experience is any criterion, the store will be packed to overflowing on the morrow. There will be music all day and every purchaser will receive a handsome souvenir. Everybody is invited and all will be made welcome.

THE SUIT ROOM ROBED IN COLD WEATHER ATTIRE

The suit room has donned its fall and winter apparel. Bright colors are no more in evidence; the sombre hues of fall and winter predominate, which are stylishly blended into fashionable novelties, and rivaling in point of elegance our best previous efforts.

If you would be schooled in styles, you must visit this department. Come and learn—you'll appreciate our command of the markets. Every item is interesting, not only because of its beauty, its newness and its originality, but also because of the extreme reasonableness of the price.

Remnants at Half Price

They're the same that were advertised last week. Bad weather Saturday slackened their their sale. No so many as when the sale started but a good variety anyway.

Corset Hygiene

Hygiene is the first principle of beauty and health. Its preservation and restoration are the first principles of our corsets, the foundation of their beautifying powers. We have endeavored to carry only the kinds that support hygienically from the back (not by pressure from the front) aiding the wearer to stand erect, for upon the spine depends the correct poise of the entire body. Throw it out of position and every vital organ is out of place, every line out of harmony. Stooping shoulders, conspicuous abdomens, are caused from outward curving of the spine at the waist line.

The Wrapper

The wrapper industry is in a very busy stage. The factories are overworked, and find it difficult to supply the demands. Hence it has been no easy matter to get good collections of wrappers. We anticipated this and placed our orders early last spring when the factories were idle. As a result we were favored with the first output. There is a goodly gathering of loving housewives to be found in this department of ours at all times. They demand
